Dear Friends,

It is a privilege to send greetings to everyone here at the Romania Day Festival on Broadway.

As you celebrate Romania's centennial, please know that I stand with you in honoring the rich history of this country and all the ways it has helped support the United States' security interests in the region.

I am grateful for Stefan Minovici's leadership in bringing together this event every year and all his work to elevate Romania's profile in the global community. I also thank each and every one of you, for bringing your unique perspective and experiences to our great state; each of you contributes to the diversity that makes New York such a vibrant place to live and work.

Please accept my best wishes for a memorable festival.

Sincerely,
